LCFF Budget Overview for Parents

For the 2020-21 school year school districts must work with parents, educators, students, and the community to develop a Learning Continuity and Attendance Plan (Learning Continuity Plan). The Learning Continuity Plan replaces the Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) for the 2020–21 school year and provides school districts with the opportunity to describe how they are planning to provide a high-quality education, social-emotional supports, and nutrition to their students during the COVID-19 pandemic.

This chart provides a quick summary of how much iLEAD Online plans to spend for planned actions and services in the Learning Continuity Plan for 2020-2021 and how much of the total is tied to increasing or improving services for high needs students.

iLEAD Online plans to spend $3,533,381.00 for the 2020-2021 school year. Of that amount, $112,635.00 is tied to actions/services in the Learning Continuity Plan and $3,420,746.00 is not included in the Learning Continuity Plan. The budgeted expenditures that are not included in the Learning Continuity Plan will be used for the following:

iLEAD Online will provide virtual workshops, Project-based learning activities, parent communication via email, phone calls, and virtual meetings. Development and implementation of additional grade level resources to improve learner outcomes in ELA and Math continues. Certificated and non-certificated (Classified) staff salaries and benefits are paid out of LCFF money. In addition, the learning management system (LMS), student information system (SIS), insurance, legal fees, banking charges, oversight and marketing fees are also paid out of the LCFF money.
