

Cyberium Under Attack!

Once upon a time, in a land far far away, there was a planet called Cyberium, where 75% of the population were cyborgs, and there was a giant octopus destroying countless cities. A cyborg named Dave wanted to help. He knew how dangerous it would be because the octopus beat 7 strong cyborgs already! He had to do something. He tried to use his plasma cannon to defeat it but, well, it didn't do any damage. Dave was terrified, but he couldn't stop now! He had to do something. He fled to his house just to find a PORTAL in his living room that wasn't there before.

Dave was dazzled to see a real portal because he has never seen one before, he knew what to do, he went in without hesitation.

When he went in, he saw a huge factory! When he went inside the factory, he found out a mad scientist named Bob made the portal for him! The mad scientist gave him a blue, shiny crystal that is more powerful than any other magic crystal. Dave thanked him and put the crystal on his forehead to unlock its mystical powers. He went back to fight the evil octopus monster. First his cannon was upgraded, so he burnt the octopuses stomach to stun it, then he pulled out his robo leg to kick it in a barrage of kicks to weaken it. Finally, he flew all around in circles to make it dizzy, then he attacked it with all his might and repeated again, again, and again! Then he defeated it! And Cyberium was saved!
