

Career Technical Education

Film Studies & Production

Colleges & Universities with Related Field

University of California, Berkeley
Chapman University
University of Southern California
New York University
American Film Institute
University of California, Los Angeles
California Institute of the Arts
Loyola Marymount University
California State University, Northridge

Pathway Information

The Film Studies and Production Pathway allows learners to explore disciplines that include film history, storytelling, screenwriting, and editing. Capstone learners will either complete field work related to their specific interests in film or produce multiple short films or videos.

Pathway Courses

The Magic of Movies: A History of Film
(Optional)

Writing for Stage and Screen:
Film Academy

Filmmaking 3: Capstone

All courses available at iLEAD Online.

Careers in Film Studies & Production

Film Producer	A/V Technician
Video Producer	Content Creator
Editor	Film Critique
Director	Post-Production
Production Asst.	Screenwriter

Wages & Salary

National Average Annual Salary: $80,990
National Average Hourly Wage: $38.94
California Average Annual Salary: $92,330
California Average Hourly Wage: $44.39

*Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor & Statistics, 2022

For more information:

Visit ileadonline.org

Contact classes@ileadonline.org
(661) 403-7167